In Vogue

Drop Dead, Gorgeous

Letting go is the hardest thing i know like this bullet pierces through my skull the end i love the feeling of steel in my heart like i lobe the bitter taste of your kiss natural bliss i'm a sucker for a happy ending interrupted by a nightmare here comes love chivalry

take a knife to your wrists make a bloodbath cut it deep it's the nes thing baby please make this last forever you're the latest fashion theme.
