

Desktop Breaking

Gob

And her body bleeds too much and her boy is out of touch
She's learning, she's yearning for something
That something that only new love can bring She needs to look into new eyes, fall into them
And this pupil will drive into her desires, go into them
'Cause it feels due, the girl she was has gone And this campus turns her on to fresh things
Her boyfriend just won't be
He's dull, old and she wants shiny and green She needs to look into new eyes, fall into them
And this pupil will drive into her desires, go into them
'Cause it feels due, it feels due Desktop breaking filled with guilt
She sees the desktop breaking, can't control herself
Desktop breaking, he'd freak out
She sees the desktop breaking, can't control herself And her body bleeds too much and her boy is out of touch
