

Never Should've Let You Go

Saliva

I thought I'd be fine, living without you
'Cause you wanted something that I couldn't give
But if I'd known then what I'd go through
Then every time I close my eyes
I see your face and realize 'Cause I should've never let you go
And I feel it still burning in my soul
There's no deeper pain
Knowing every day
That I'm never going to get you back
And I'm still living with that regret
Every night in this bed on my own
I never should have let you go You walked away and I still can't blame you
I know that you found what you needed in me
Somebody else I hang on to
The memories I've lost
Is all that's left here because 'Cause I should've never let you go
And I feel it still burning in my soul
There's no deeper pain
Knowing every day
That I'm never going to get you back
And I'm still living with that regret
Every night in this bed on my own
I never should have let you go And it's hell knowing what I've lost
And that day I pay the cost
I'll wake up and realize that you are gone I never should've let you go
And I feel it still burning in my soul
There's no deeper pain
Knowing every day
That I'm never going to get you back
And I'm still living with that regret
Every night in this bed on my own
I never should have let you go I never should have let you go, yeah
No I never, never, never, never should have let you go
