

Legend of a Curse

Vampiria

Far away in time, in a lonely kingdom
Lived an ancient cast who kept a dark treasure
Cenderus attends the kingdom gates
But some day he failed and the curse escaped
Beware, they are free now, beware, they are walking by your side
Under the spell of He, the prince Nosferatu, they've got immortal
Life a gift that is a curse, this curse was called Vampiria
Master of the night, slaves of blood, condemned to live from dusk 'til dawn Eternal existence, with a price paid in blood, far away from death
But walking beside she, beware they're free now
Beware, you're the chosen one Master, you promise me eternal life, I'm waiting for you
