The Great Depression

Dave Hause

We are the sons and daughters of a revolution, revolutionaries walking us out of opression and into a no-low promise land.and this is leaves us with a great sense of sadness dwelling inside our soul. no one can explain where its' coming from or where its taking us.we just know that something is lost, but somehow we are lost, lostand this my friend, is the great depression

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/