

Let It Rain

Sarah Brightman

It's tempting, haunting, love is the law
It's temple, it's empty, from grace we fall
It feels like on the outside, looking in
We always wonder how it could have been Let it rain, let it rain
Why can't we find love again
Let it rain, let it rain
Still I drown in tears of pain
Over again, let it rain Chances, hunger insatiable
Life is changing, unpredictable
Hear me calling, where are you now?
Will we meet anyway, anyhow? Let it rain, let it rain
Why can't we find love again
Let it rain, let it rain
Still I drown in tears of pain
Over again Where do we end? Where do we begin?
Are we lost or must we lose to win?
We depend on where we stand
Are we free to choose the lives we live? Where do we end? Where do we begin?
Are we lost or must we lose to win?
Are we free to choose the lives we live? Let it rain, let it rain
Why can't we find love again
Let it rain, let it rain
Still I drown in tears of pain Let it rain, let it rain
Why can't we find love again
Let it rain, let it rain
Still I drown in tears of pain
Over again, let it rain

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>