

Seed of Doubt

Sally Seltmann

when i wake i see the day light open up dont ever lose my sight seed of doubt you are beside me i never asked for your company ohhhh
falling like a feather
down
dont know whether we are breaking up breaking up or loosing touch giving up hope when we have so much i love you i love you but i just dont know what it feels like anymore am a fool if i follow, a road to uncertainty faith outside left an arrow, i dont belong here ohhh
i love you i love you but i just dont know what its feels like anymore ohhhhh
ohhhhhhh
breaking up breaking up next to you i know i want this i know i do but the seed of doubt makes me question of the fact i do
dont know whether am running am running just as fast i can does not mean
