Reasonable Doubt

Agnostic Front

The mainstream media lies through their teeth
The corporations control the government
They're making moves while the city sleeps
I'll never trust them againI don't give a fuck about what you say to me
I don't give a fuck about what you think of meI have a right to ask and a right to know
It's up to us to take that step
The system's broke and it's starting to choke
And that's the fucking truth of itI don't give a fuck about what they say to me
I don't give a fuck about what they think of me
Because - power to the people, fight back
Out in the streets trying to make a change
We're not gonna settle for this shit again
No way!
