

Angry Johnny

Poe

Johnny, angry Johnny
This is Jezebel in Hell I wanna kill you
I wanna blow you away
I wanna kill you
I wanna blow you away I can do it you gently
I can do it with an animal's grace
I can do it with precision
I can do it with gourmet taste But either way
Either, either way
I wanna kill you
I wanna blow you away I can do it to your mind
I can do it to your face
I can do it with integrity
I can do it with disgrace But either way
Either way
I wanna kill you
I wanna blow you away Johnny, angry Johnny
This is Jezebel in Hell, Johnny
Johnny, angry Johnny
This is Jezebel in Hell I can do it in a church
I can do it any time or place
I can do it like an angel
To quiet down your rage But either way
Either, oh either way
I wanna kill you
I wanna blow you away I can do it in the water
I can do on dry land
I can do it with instruments
I can do it with my own bare hands But either way, either way
You know where it stands
I wanna kill you
I wanna blow you away Johnny, angry Johnny
This is Jezebel in Hell
Johnny, oh my Johnny Where did your pleasure go
When the pain came through you?
Where did your happiness go?
This force is running you around now
Getting you down now
Where is your pleasure now Johnny?

Where has your pleasure gone now? Johnny, angry Johnny

This is Jezebel in Hell

Johnny, angry Johnny

This is Jezebel in Hell Johnny, I wanna blow you

Oh Johnny, away

Johnny, I wanna blow you away

Johnny, every body really doesn't feel okay

Johnny
