Labyrinth

BÃ©la Fleck and the Flecktones just like a spy through smoke and lights and I saw things getting smaller I escaped through the backdoor of the world fear as well as temptation now everything is reflection as i make my way through this labyrinth and my sense of direction is lost like the sound of my steps

scent of dried flowers
and I'm walkin' through the fog walkin' through the fog
i see my memories in black and white
they are neglected by space and time i left my wishes so far behind i stored all my days in boxes i find my only salvation and my sense of connection in playin' hide and seek in this labyrinth

chorus words sounds music and i'm spinnin' in sounds music and i'm spinnin' out cause i'm waiting for the rain but i want to stay here everything everything everything and i want it to wash away
