I Apologize

Changing Faces

As I look back in time
Baby, I apologize
I must have been blind
Now I need you by my sideAs I look back in time
Baby, I apologize
I must have been blind
Now I need you by my sideAs I look back in time
Baby, I apologize
I must have been blind
Now I need you by my sideAs I look back in time
Baby, I apologize
I must have been blind
Now I need you by my sideRemember the sin
When I was young and so much fun
Playin' the games that we would play
I hurt you in a bad wayNever did I imagine that
I would yearn for your lovin' back
Back in my heart again
Back in my heart again
When I look back nowAs I look back in time
Baby, I apologize
I must have been blind
Now I need you by my sideAs I look back in time
Baby, I apologize
I must have been blind
Now I need you by my sideIn the beginning
I was just so in love with you
Momma said, "Wait, you're way too young
You got your whole life ahead of you"Never did I imagine that
I would yearn for your lovin' back
Back in my heart again
Back in my heart again
When I look back nowAs I look back in time
Baby, I apologize
I must have been blind
Now I need you by my sideAs I look back in time
Baby, I apologize
I must have been blind
Now I need you by my sideI'm lookin' for someone to love

Lookin' for someone I could trust
And I know that you're the one
I'm not to afraid to let you know I'm wrongYou're the one my heart beats for
No need to look no more
Want you to know that
I want you, need you, ohLet me know
Let me know, boy
Tell me if you're out there
'Cause I need you right hereLet me know
Let me know, boy
Tell me if you're out there
'Cause I need you right hereLet me know
Let me know, boy
Tell me if you're out there
'Cause I need you right hereLet me know
Let me know, boy
Tell me if you're out there
'Cause I need you right here
