

Gotta Let Cha Know

Francis M

Friends is a word we use every day
But most of the time we use it in the wrong way

Now you can look the word up again and again
But the dictionary doesn't know the meaning of friends
Now if you ask me you know I couldn't be much of help
Because a friend's somebody you judge for yourself
Some are okey and they treat you real cool
And some mistake kindness for being a fool
We like to be with some because they're funny
Others come around when they need some money
Some you grew up with around the way
And you still grow close to this very day
Homeboys through the summer, winter, spring and fall
And then there are some we wish we never knew at all

The list goes on again and again
But then these are the people that we call...
Friends, how many of us have been?
Friends, ones we can depend on
Friends, how many of us have them?

Friends, before we go any further
Let's be friends, they come in all sizes and shapes

Try to count how many of them are we gonna make in a lifetime
We don't know for sure how many like a child take to candy
Massive or plenty, or dwindlin' if you live a life o' swindlin'
And dealin' and wheelin' or takin' heroin like Weiland

La vie en rose c'est la vie take a pause
Will it include me, myself and I with a clause?

Applause, so selfish of myself
To forget without friends, we be worthless
We won't even worth_____

Pardon my lingo, my stilo's kinda harsh
We got to mingle, tickle them funny bones
Makes it a whole lot sweeter

Margarita, I be swayin' when I take the bj Flaming Bikini
Play Godini, that's what I say
Friends, how many of us have been?

Friends, ones we can depend on
Friends, how many of us have them?

Friends
