

Animal

Ivory Hours

Hey, you think I treat you like a ghost don't you?
When I pass you in the hallway?
But I'm just afraid
That satin and lace
Would rip both our hearts in two
So I keep all my love from you And this animal, won't sleep
This animal won't sleep Hey, what excuses does he get lately?
When you're sneaking under streetlights
To find my place
And hide your shame
In throwing it all away
I couldn't keep all my love from you And this animal, won't sleep
This animal won't sleep
