Dikta

learn to lie burn your bridge and fingertips paint the sky taint their view and read their lipsno-one can stop you now not even you know howhide from your friends while you make amends say your goodbyes as they fade to blacksee the world's end with your only friend one day you'll stay there and not come backtear the page wear your heart out on your sleeve lock the cage walk away and say you'll leavespend your days bend their will around your needs feel the haze steal a heart that never bleeds
