Dark Days

Jolie Holland

Dark days coming down
I lost my sweet lover
Long shadows reaching out
I lost my sweet lover
Trying not to lose my mindDark days coming down
I lost my sweet lover
Storm clouds rolling in
I lost my sweet lover
I just can't keep from crying
And the stars refuse to shine
And everything reminds me of him
I want to smash it all up
And never start againDark days coming down
I lost my sweet lover
Dig a hole in the ground
I lost my sweet lover
Say goodnight to the beautiful light
Of the day
Cause when every little thing
Reminds me of him
I want to smash it all up
And never start againGoodbye to the moon
Goodbye to the sun
Goodbye to the stars
I will miss you every single one
For I've been condemned to spend the rest of my days
In the darkest of [joys?]
