

Into the Unknown

Avantasia

Heading for another life in a new world far away
Why not me, oh, Lord?
Why did Vandroiy have to die, why? Dreamers come and go, but a dream's forever
Freedom for all minds, let us go together
Never ending ways, got to roam forever
Always carry on Walking down a misty road into the unknown
Heavy winds may blow into our faces
Oh, you can't kill the dream in killing the dreamer
Can't tear it down, someone carry on Dreamers come and go, but a dream's forever
Freedom for all minds, let us go together
Never ending ways, got to roam forever
Always carry on Dreamers come and go, but a dream's forever
Freedom for all minds, let us go together
Never ending ways, got to roam forever
Always carry on Dreamers come and go, but a dream's forever
Freedom for all minds, let us go together
Never ending ways, got to roam forever
Always carry on Dreamers come and go, but a dream's forever
Freedom for all minds, let us go together
Never ending ways, got to roam forever
Always carry on
