

Showtime

Baptiste Giabiconi

won't permit you to get me down because I'm on my stride and I'll keep my pride no time for you to analyze don't try to read my mind you'll never get it right prejudice makes us less and I
I will not be defined I will not justify feelin' blessed and serene you see cuz I believe in me just wait and see
it's showtime
turn it on gonna see me shine i won't stop i'm the one starring in my life it's go time
starting right now
watch me take a bow
it's so hot livin' large standing in the light i won't drop gonna get to the finish line
people freak when they think you're weak because you change your mind just take another try my decisions are mine all mine since when is that a crime?
I'm gonna be just fine win or lose it's for me to choose I feel like breakin' rules I won't be no one's fool right or wrong, bring it on cuz I
i've only got one life

just one life (refrain)
can you listen to this without your prejudice gotta follow your heart or you'll keep us apart won't you open your mind
