Try not to think about it
But you remind
That we are heading in the wrong direction
You make me sick and tired
No never learn
You put yourself on top and that just makes me
Slip and slide and wish my heart away
Come a time when I don't feel like crawling
I try to do right until my heart breaks
In need of repair, it won't be you I'm callingTry to take me down
I'll be right up
'cause you aim too low
And I've had enough

You think you can change it?
Think that you can change it?

Your attitude
Keep barking at the top but I'm an underdog
I'm quitting, sick and tired
No crown in your empire
DIY pedestals are just what makes me
Slip and slide and see my color fade
Come a time when I can put no more in
I try to do right until my heart breaks
In need of repair, it won't be you I'm callingTry to take me down
I'll be right up
'cause you aim too low
And I've had enough
