Watch the Children Pray

Metal Church

In a darkened graveyard glows a light.
I see it shine there every night.
I know somewhere there's a hidden door.
There's an answer here we must explore.No, I'll not submit to reason.
I'll sit and watch the seasons change.We watch the children pray.
Save us God today,
Come whatever may.We hold our fate and make the choice,
But we'll not listen to that still small voice.
Are we just crazy, out of our minds?
Wish this were someplace, another time.We watch the children pray.
Save us God today,
Come whatever may.And I know we're going
So far away from this wretched life we lead.
With open arms meet catastrophe,
In the valley of the damned we'll be.And I know we're going
So far away from this wretched life we lead.
With open arms meet catastrophe,
In the valley of the damned we'll be.We watch the children pray.
Save us God today,
Come whatever may.And now to life we say goodbye.
I know the when but not the why.
Our nation's blood spills on the ground.
Our lives go out without a sound.
