

Can You Play Drums?

Starflyer 59

And this is what you can't explain
A need to take a long long trip on a train
And this is what you cannot say
I want to take a long long trip far away I can't even talk, just kick in the rock
I already know what we're going to play I just want to take the flight
I need a drummer and I need one tonight
And this is what you cannot say
I want to take a long long trip far away I can't even talk, just kick in the rock
I already know what we're going to play
