Dear Deadly

Creeper Lagoon

Can't you spend just a little bit of Precious time for the cinema?
Get down off of your battleground
Change for a ten will bring the waiter roundCome silent, dear deadly
Just wanted to walk away
So brilliant, dear Velveteen
Come closer so we can preyCan't wait, patience is a dreadful thought
Got high and found myself in Camelot
Big deal, wasted time in paradise
Give blood and sell your shit for any priceCome silent, dear deadly
Just wanted to walk away
So brilliant, dear Velveteen
Come closer so we can preyDon't care to hear about your pirate ship
Some treasure broken hearts and bloody lips
Dear Blackbeard set the sail, they've gone downtown
God save us, abandon ship, the captain's downQuick trip, ring the bell, the bus has stopped
Give up, the war is won, the bomb is dropped
Go home, you're lost just like a superstar
Exhale, release your hate, it's who you areCome silent, dear deadly
Just wanted to walk away
So brilliant, dear Velveteen
Come closer so we can prey
