Coffee

Sylvan Esso

True, it's dance, we know the moves
The bar, the dip, the woo
Though the words are true
The state is old newsWrap me in your arms
I can't feel it but
Wrap me in your arms
I can't feel it butGet up, get down
Get up, get down
Feel the turn of rotation
And stop, see the next one waiting
Get up, get down
Get up, get down
Get up
Sentiment's the same but the pair of feet changeI know my words will dry upon the skin
Just like a name I remember hearing
Wild winter, warm coffee
Mom's gone, do you love me?
Blazing summer, cold coffee
Baby's gone, do you love me?Wrap me in your arms
I can't feel it but
Wrap me in your arms
I can't feel it butGet up, get down
Get up, get down
Feel the turn of rotation
And stop, see the next one waiting
Get up, get down
Get up, get down
Get up
Sentiment's the same but the pair of feet changeGet up, get down
Get up, get down
Feel the turn of rotation
And stop, see the next one waiting
Get up, get down
Get up, get down
Get up
Sentiment's the same but the pair of feet changeMy baby does the hanky-panky
My baby does
My baby does the hanky-panky
My baby doesMy baby does the hanky-panky

My baby does
(Rock me)
My baby does the hanky-panky
My baby doesGet up, get down
Get up, get down
Feel the turn of rotation
Get up, get down
Get up, get down
Get up
Sentiment's the same but the pair of feet change
