Iceblink Luck

Cocteau Twins

I'm seemin' to be a little alive
I'm happy again, caught, caught in time
Expose the daughter of yourself well
Me, I think that you're in her heartYou're the match of Jerico
That will burn this whole madhouse down
And I'll throw open like the wall not safe
More like a love that's a bottle of exquisite stuff, yesYou, yourself, and your father
Don't know, so part in your own ways
You're really both bone setters
Thank you for mending me babiesYou're the match of Jerico
That will burn this whole madhouse down
And I'll throw open like a wall not safe
You will seem more like being that same bottle of exquisite stuffYes, you are the match of Jerico
That will burn this whole madhouse down
And I'll throw open like the wall not safeYou, yourself, and your father don't know
So part in your own ways
You're really both bone setters
Thank you for mending me babies
