take me back where i belong
life is short and life is long take me back where i belongwhen i feel alone cannot find the light gimme bit of your sweet loving and ill feel alrightgive me something i can feel give me something i can feel night is short and love is real yea give me soemthing i can feelwhen i feel alone cannot find the light
gimme little bit of your sweet loving and ill feel alrightwedding bells are ringing ringing our beginning
wedding bells are ringing
all will be forgiven all will be forgivengive me darkness, give me day give me darkness, give me day keep me old, but keep me brave give me darkness, give me daywhen i feel alone cannot find the light
gimme little bit of your sweet loving and ill feel alrightnow listenwedding bells are ringing ringing hallelujah
ringing hallelujah
ringing hallelujahall will be forgiven, all will be forgiven
