Vision

Supperclub

take time to look around past the lies, look in your soul stand mute without a sound the world is changing - just look away and if you want to know the truth I just don't know what to say we used to stand for everything now I can see it slipping away take me away cause I can't believe that you're the one to fall I still remember when we had a vision in our hands and we gave it to the world then you took your guns and blew yourselves away in order to be good does that mean we must be great? everything I thought was wrong we passed the torch and now it's gone
