I Won't Concede, I Won't Give In

Randy

I won't concede, I won't give in. I won't walk their walk. I won't have complicity within. I won't talk their talk. I won't deny it if they catch me, I've put society in cage. along with God and the Government it will burn inside my head. Their way of sociality makes me sick as a fucking bigamy. With national and capital brides to be their lovely wedde wifes I will make sure that their marriage won't last forever. I won't be quite, no way, cause I have something that I wanna say. So many stupid people that makes life so hard to bare, how can they expect us to fit in when we don't belong here. I won't be there when they call me, I won't just sit upon my ass, I won't be the passive asshole I was from first to last class. We can not just think about ourselfs, we got an entire planet at stake. with both animal and human lifes I think it's time to pump the brakes. I won't be quite, no way, cause I have something that I wanna say. So many stupid people that makes life so hard to bare. we have the minds to change the future so why don't we start right here. In a way, aha, I want them all to go away.The narrowminded people with their self-important ways. I won't walk their walk, I won't talk their talk. I won't concede, I won't give in, I won't have complicity with them.
