

No More Crying

'Til Tuesday

There is no love here
There is no love
Only some sort of blackmail
Whatever you feel
Whatever you feel
Probably only comes down
To male and female
No more crying over you
No more crying over you
No more crying over you
No more crying because of you
Found myself thinking
You shouldn't think
He was almost sincere
But you know rumors
(You know that talk)
You believe what you hear, oh
No more crying over you
No more crying over you
No more crying over you
No more crying
I saw it coming
But you let it come
Oh, it's the same old story
You ignore his lying
Lying
And believe him when he says that he's sorry
No more crying over you
No more crying over you
No more crying over you
No more crying over, over you
Oh, no more crying over you
Oh no, no more crying over you
No more crying over you
