Falling Fast

Testament

Locked in a darkened world
Made to never last
That's where the dreams you seek
Are stories from the pastSweet infant child's born
Sweet mother of the womb
Hope it is over soon
Not much more can I takeHelp me Lord, I'm falling fast
Bring me backNerves slip away from Within your conscious mind
Translucent hopes are now
Nothing but dismal liesYou lived your life so down
To the bitter end
You better think it over now
Your life has just begunHelp me Lord, I'm falling fast
Bring me back from suicideJust show me life is how
And not a bitter war
The odds in favor now
It's hard to live and learnSilence the sorrow
And don't let it slip away
Think of tomorrow
As the future of todayHelp me Lord, I'm falling fast
Bring me back from suicide, I'm falling fastLocked in a darkened world
Made to never last
That's where the dreams you seek
Are stories from the pastSweet infant child's born
Sweet mother of the womb
Hope it is over soon
Not much more can I takeHelp me Lord, I'm falling fast
Bring me back from suicide, I'm falling fast
