Kj-52

Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high, down
Now, I was just walking through cartoon land
When all of a sudden I ran into Sponge Bob square pants
He was chilling with the Power Puff Girls and Spider man
Driving down Sesame Street with Scooby Doo in a mini van
He was rocking to the beat driving as fast as they can
They almost ran over Ren and Stimpy and He-Man
I yelled at them slow down but they didn't understand
They said they heading over to a free hip-hop jam
And over in the park let me catch a ride then
I got in picked up Bart Simpson kept driving
Got to the spot and the party was live and
At the open mic contest Bevis and Butt Head was rhyming
I was like them kids is wack give me just a try
And waited patiently till it was just my time
And I told the crowd make noise get ya, hands high
And this is what I said when I grabbed on the mic I told 'em
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Now, said to the crowd, my name's KJ-52
And I came to get down I got something to say to you
Understand what I mean even if you're a cartoon
Jesus reigns supreme that's how my team comes through
And then all of a sudden these wannabe Hard Dudes
From South Park walk up just talk 'nd smack too
And the Smurfs backed them up I guess they was just a crew
They said, let's battle fool, I said, check it out Fu
You're five inch tall plus ya, crew is all blue
I'd prized up on y'all if I just bettled you
They said la, la, la
That's all you ever say dude
And just right then just the crowd started to boo
Them right off the stage but I knew just what to do
I told D.J.Voltron just on the ones and two's

Man kick the beat check it out this is how I'm rocking you, common
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Now the crowd started cheering the party was slamming
The Thunder Cats and Pokemon they was break dancing
Transformers hopped in and started pop locking
G.I.Joe and Johnny Bravo chilling and just watching
I stayed on the mic and kept the speakers knocking
Letting them know that Christ was the reason that I'm dropping
All the world's life need the reason why I'm rocking
I could go on all night and just keep on talking
But just right then Power Rangers started walking
Up, on the stage and said, I won the open mic and
As I reached to get my trophy and just claim my prize and Well, out of nowhere well this is what happened
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high, down
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
Oh, ah, push 'em up high, oh, ah, push 'em up high
