Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

My blood is thicker than water
I'm livin' out my life
I'll have my friends forever
We'll walk the sands of timeYou should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by nowI never take no chances
Don't stand for compromise
I'll find the hidden treasure
I'm only passin' byYou should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by nowCan you hear me tellin' you
(Tellin' you)
I've got something to say
(Hey)
Don't you know it's nothin' new
Don't you get in my way, get in my wayYou should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by nowYou should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by nowYou should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by nowYou should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by now
You should know by now
