Love Will Come Back

Chicago

I don't love you anymore
We've all heard those words before
Somebody takes your heart and then
Leaves you the piecesLying shattered on the floor
They say that when you close the door
Another one is waiting there
For you to open, if you believeLove will come back
Hit you when you least expect it
Fill in the cracks
Of a broken heartYou thought that
You could never mend
You, you can start againWhen you're barely getting by
And it's hard to find the strength to try
And loneliness is all you've known
If you let go then you will findLove will come back
Hit you when you least expect it
Fill in the cracks
Of a broken heartYou thought that
You could never mend
You, you can start againOh, when you think
You've lost the only way
All you really need
Is a little faithLove will come back
Hit you when you least expect it
Fill in the cracks
Of a broken heartYou thought that
You could never mend
You, you can start againLet love return to you
You can start again
