

Easy to Love

Anita O'Day

I know too well that I'm just wasting precious time
In thinking such a thing could be
That you could ever care for me
I'm sure you hate to hearThat I adore you, dear
    But grant me
    Just the same
I'm not entirely to blameFor love
    You'd be so easy to love
    So easy to idolize
All others aboveSo worth the yearning for
So swell to keep every homefire burning for
    We'd be so grand at the game
    So carefree together
