

Wading Through The Darkness

Flotsam and Jetsam

You put a gun to my head
The storm's too deep, outlook dead
Handing down that anger
Nothing good ever lasts Moody violence, now a fool in my eyes
What's the answer, I'll search till I die
Try a little harder, I hear myself say
Make it last before it's taken away Wading through the darkness
My head held in my hands
Wading through the darkness Forced to forget this anguish
I'm half of what I used to be
Erase my memory, now gone forever, goodbye
But I know my memories won't die Wading through the darkness
My head held in my hands
Wading through the darkness Dead inside with a heart that bleeds
Relax, my tension needs, tightness suffocates
No longer churning inside, rotted memories inhabit my mind
My rage destroys the calm, destroys the calm Wading through the darkness
My head held in my hands
Wading through the darkness Wading through the darkness
Wading through the darkness
Wading through the

Songwriters

Gilbert Michael A; Kelly David Smith; Carlson Edward Dennis; Jason B. Ward; Knutson Eric A; Braverman Eric

Jason Published by

SONGS OF UNIVERSAL, INC. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>