

We Will Rise Again

Scorpions

Holding on to you like broken glass
Every touch cuts deeper than the last
I know I should leave
But it feels so good to bleed
Poison kisses lock us in this cage
Our lives get twisted in this masquerade
I can't seem to shake this incurable need
This endless addiction I feed
Angels on fire, they fall from the sky
Heaven and hell will be burning tonight
Covered in ashes, I cry out your name
And out of the flames, we will rise again
Run into the shadows where we hide
Bodies tender as our words collide
And nothing is sacred and everything's wrong
But you and I keep holding on
Angels on fire, they fall from the sky
Heaven and hell will be burning tonight
Covered in ashes, I cry out your name
And out of the flames, we will rise again
No temptation is my sin
Not my darkest demons win
Angels on fire, they fall from the sky
Heaven and hell will be burning tonight
Covered in ashes, I cry out your name
And out of the flames, we will rise
Angels on fire, they fall from the sky
Heaven and hell will be burning tonight
Covered in ashes, I cry out your name
And out of the flames, we will rise again
We will rise again, we will rise
