

Girl Found

Brainpool

Whem I'm feeling bad
Or when I'm feeling blue
Or if my thoughts are sad
 I only think of you
Let the grey skies come our way
 Give the space
 We can make them go away
 When there's no way to turn
 Nothing at all is new
 When there's no bridge to burn
 I only think of you
Let the grey skies come our way
 Give the space
 We can make them go away
 So if you need a hand
 Someone to understand
 Someone to share your plans
 Then baby I'm your man
