

Lose Me

Megan Slankard

Lately, I watch the coffee perk, give my cup a stir
It looks dire sir, it's a voice I've heard
There is no cure, there are no words, I'm not sure
But it seems like a perfect way to lose meMy book rests on the table
My pen leaks poetry
I think I must be defective
You always seem to lose meTry not not, try not not
Try not not, try not to lose me
Try not not, try not not
Try not not, try not to lose meLately, it's been 3 am, up still or up again?
I've kinda crumpled in your hands
Then I scattered in the wind and if you try
To steal my dreams, it's a perfect way to lose meTry not not, try not not Try not not, try not to lose meMy book rests on the table
My pen leaks poetry
Think I must be defective
You always seem to lose meTry not not, try not not
Try not not, try not to lose me, yeah
Do no not, do no not
Do no not, try not to lose me
Do you want, do you want
Do you want? Don't wanna lose meTry not not, do no not
Do you want? Don't wanna lose me, yeah
