Walking Wounded

Everything But the Girl

Out amongst the walking wounded
Every face on every bus
Is you and me and him and her
And nothing can replace the us I knew
Nothing can replace the us I knewAnd no, I'm never gonna let you go
And no, I'm never gonna let you go
And now I know I had a choice
Though you never made it clear to me
I thought you never felt it deeplyNow I'm never gonna let you go
No, I'm never gonna let you go
'Cause I could have loved you forever
I could have loved you foreverWhat do you want from me?
Are you trying to punish me?
Punish me for loving you, punish me for giving to you
Punish me for nothing I do, punish me for nothing
You punish me for nothing, for nothingOut amongst the walking wounded
Every face on every bus
Is you and me and him and her
And nothing can replace the us I knew
Nothing can replace the us I knewNow I'm never gonna let you go
Now I'm never gonna let you go
And now I know I had a choice
Though you never made it clear to me
I thought you never felt it deeplyNow I'm never gonna let you go
No, I'm never gonna let you go
'Cause I could have loved you forever
I could have loved you forever
Oh, I could have loved you forever
I could have loved you foreverWhat do you want from me?
Are you trying to punish me?
Punish me for loving you, punish me for giving to you
Punish me for nothing I do, punish me for nothing
You punish me for nothing, for nothingOut amongst the walking wounded
Every face on every bus
Is you and me and him and her
And nothing can replace the us I knew
Nothing can replace the us I knewOut amongst the walking wounded
Every face on every train
Is you and me and him and her

Some days I think I could go insane
Some days I think I could go insane

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/