

Gold

Coquin Migale

Gold, fills my eyes
I have a different shade, a subtle glaze for every specific structured light.

I feel like I've been dreaming
I feel like I've been dreaming
I feel like I've been dreaming
I feel like I've been dreaming

Gold, fills my lungs
This elongated daydream doesn't last much longer
Oohhh
Twisting turns and intertwines, pulls apart my inside.

I feel like I've been dreaming
I feel like I've been dreaming
I feel like I've been dreaming
I feel like I've been dreaming»¿
