

Shouldn't Be a Good In Goodbye

Jason Walker

After the sadness, and after the last words.
Caught in the silence. Caught in between.
After the madness. After the slow shock.
Before the wave hits, the flood comes rushing in. This is the bad before the worse.
This is the storm before the storm
I haven't even hit the bottom of this ocean floor.
This is the bend before the break.
This is the mercy not the grace.
This is the proof and not the faith i try to find.
There shouldn't be a good in goodbye. If I never loved you, if I never felt your kiss.
If I never had you. I know that I ..I still would have mourned you. I would have missed your smile.
If it wasn't so worth it, this wouldn't be..oh this wouldn't be the bad before the worse and the storm before the storm. I haven't even hit the bottom of this ocean floor.
This is the bend before the break.
This is the mercy not the grace.
This is the proof and not the faith I try to find. There shouldn't be a good in goodbye. I know this is gonna get better ohh.
I know this is gonna get better ohh.
I know.
This is the bitter not the sweet.
This is the take and not the keep.
And I haven't even reached the bottom of this ocean floor. This is the bend before the break.
This is the mercy not the grace.
This is the proof and not the faith I try to find.
There shouldn't be a good in goodbye.
Yeah. There shouldn't be good in goodbye. There shouldn't be a good in goodbye
