[Intro - Ace Hood & Jay-Z]
[Ace Hood]
What?[Jay-Z]
If money talks
If money talks
If money talks
If money talks
If money talks
The whole world about to hear me out[Ace Hood]
I'm laughing to the bank baby!
You follow me?[Chorus - Jay-Z] X2
If money talks
If money talks
If money talks
If money talks
If money talks
The whole world about to hear me out
If money talks the whole world about to hear me out
If money talks the whole world about to hear me out[Verse 1 - Ace Hood]
I'm Mister Hood!
Okay, money in the building, sanitize the room
You ain't talking paper nigga you can get the snooze
See I'm here for paying dues
Quarter million worth of jewels
See the shoes Louis V. plus my bitch in Jimmy Choo
Why you plotting all your moves, I be dipping in the cool
Got an educated top, but now he dropping out of school
Now my future looking bright, introduce you to the ice
VVS's so precise, not a flowering in your sight
Big money in the place, money in the safe
Got the type of money that'll ban you from the state
Nigga money what we talking, step into my office
Stacking dead presidents, that's way too many coffins[Chorus][Verse 2 - Ace Hood]
Okay, money and the power, taking what is ours
Hoe niggas and bullshit, send his mother flowers
Dealing with them wolves, homie you can get devoured
We get bookoo dollars, see me bitches holler
Gucci, Louis, Prada, on my sneaker, belt, and collar
Fly as Delta Airlines, an Army Navy chopper

They say money rule the world, diamonds and the pearls
See I just think it's easy when it come to getting girls
So I just introduce them to the liquor not the Earl
And they must wear a sweater
Because my diamonds make the them burr
Like the Gucci Mane bitch, read the label on the kicks
See my foreign leather whip, FEDS think he moving bricks
But uh[Chorus] X4
