One Funeral Hymn for Three

Into Eternity

One funeral hymn for threeLoved ones gathered here
In this sorrow
Anthems sang
There's no tomorrow
Laying here cold and white
Empty with no soulOne last song for three
Sang to you from beyond
Funeral hymn
The end has passed
I now see so much clearer
Funeral hymnSacrament of the sick
Last rites were performed
Laid in the morgue
Entombed in darkness
Never to breathe again
Final farewell
These last wordsBody embalmment for
Final preservation
Memories are all we have
For any resurrection
Lowered down into
My final resting place
This is an ending we must all embraceOne last song for three
Sang to you from beyond
Funeral hymn
The end has passed
I now see so much clearer
Funeral hymnOne funeral hymn for threeSacrament of the sick
Last rites were performed
Laid in the morgue
Entombed in darkness
Never to breathe again
Final farewell
These last wordsOne funeral hymn for threeOne last song for three
Sang to you from beyond
Funeral hymn
The end has passed
I now see so much clearer
Funeral hymn
