Limp Bizkit

Oh Otto
Break it on down
That's right
Ladies and gentleman
Once again Limp Bizkit

Pour it up let me get a shot of that
I'm rollin' this shit straight through ya
Tell me what ya gonna do about that
We gonna light this place up
Light it up like a fire in the sky, yeah

Somebody better call the cops
Somebody better call the cops, yo
All the women in the back give me one scream
All the women in the front give me one scream
All the women in the house tell me what you want

I'ma give it to you baby tell me what you want
It don't matter what you need I'ma give it to ya
It don't matter what you want I'ma give it to ya
We gonna rock until the sun comes up
We gonna rock until the mother fuckin' sun comes up

Oh yeah, let me see them
Oh yeah, Let me see them hands
Let me see you smile, let me see you rock
Lets turn this place into something they cannot stop
Let me see you rock, let me see you rock
Turn this place into something they cannot stop

I'ma keep on rockin' and shockin' the floor
I'ma keep on rockin' and shockin' the floor
I'ma keep on rockin' and shockin' the floor

My mind is blown, please tell me that your mind is blown
Ain't ever heard something like this before
I know it's on

Go get your girlfriend

Go get her girl, let's get it on
'Cause I'ma rock this party until the break of dawn

Who the hell you foolin?
Who the hell talkin' that shit?
It don't matter cause we gonna take three shots
After that baby you can tell me what it is

You can tell me what you want
You can tell me what you need
You can tell me everything you wanna see
It don't matter in the world of make believe
It's only you and me, it's only you and me

Oh yeah, let me see them
Oh yeah, let me see them hands
Let me see you smile, let me see you rock
Lets turn this place into something they cannot stop
Let me see you rock, let me see you rock
Turn this place into something they cannot stop

I'ma keep on rockin' and shockin' the floor
