

Bad Day (feat. Mr. Ree)

Group 1 Crew

You picked a bad day to break my heart, bad day to break my heart
Always thought that you'd stay, but here we are dying from a broken heart
Happily ever after
Happily never laughter
Is all I can hear when I think about how it's something we never could capture Heartbreak was the ocean
Man, you know I don't swim
Instead of throwing a vest, you throwing me in I know you think that I'm a drama queen
Writing another song about you
But don't you know this is my therapy
The only way I know to get through
This life is crazy, don't you agree
It's like we had our own raincloud
Communication was bittersweet
We didn't break up, we broke down
You picked a bad day to break my heart, bad day to break my heart
Always thought that you'd stay, but here we are dying from a broken heart
I wish that we can push rewind, we could push rewind
Before we both went crazy and we lost our mind
We can push rewind, we could push rewind
Before we both went crazy and we lost our mind
I think of every time
That you and I
Had wit each other and nobody cried
Couple of years and nobody lied
Couple of fights but nobody died
Ha ha, I'm kiddin witcha
Knew there was trouble whenever we talked
Every time we would end up demeaning each other and that was never a good look
Aaah this crazy
This ain't the way that people should be
Love should resemble the beautiful truth that is found in our God and we both are missing
I know it's a bad day
For us to have broken hearts
Instead of fallin in love, we fallin apart
You picked a bad day to break my heart, bad day to break my heart
Always thought that you'd stay, but here we are dying from a broken heart
I wish that we can push rewind, we
could push rewind
Before we both went crazy and we lost our mind
We can push rewind, we could push rewind
Before we both went crazy and we lost our mind
You pushed our love over the edge

You know I gotta let go, baby
There's no coming back once it's dead
We got our whole life to fall in love again
So let's forgive and forget You picked a bad day to break my heart, bad day to break my heart Always thought that you'd stay, but here we are dying from a broken heart I wish that we can push rewind, we
could push rewind
Before we both went crazy and we lost our mind
We can push rewind, we could push rewind
Before we both went crazy and we lost our mind
We can push rewind, we could push rewind
Before we both went crazy and we lost our mind
We can push rewind, we could push rewind
Before we both went crazy and we lost our mind I know it's a bad day
For us to have broken hearts
Instead of fallin in love, we fallin apart
