

Walking Behind

The Moffatts

She's running and he's walking behind
He's trying but he's last in her line
His love's dying but he keeps on tryin'
He lives in fear with a love that's clear
(He's walking behind)
He's got love that he needs to give but she's afraid to let him in
To her world with no together
She can't see him in her picture
She wants love but her heart won't let her let him in
He's walking behind, he's walking behind
The phone's ringin', is it her on the line?
Does he answer or is he wasting his time?
Her love's dying but she keeps on trying
She lives in fear of a love that's clear
(She's walking behind)
She's got love that she needs to give but he's afraid to let her in
To her world with no together
She can't see him in her picture
She wants love but her heart won't let her let him in
He's walking behind, he's walking behind
To his world with no together
He can't see her in his picture
He wants love but his heart won't let him let her in
She's walkin' behind, yeah
They've got a love to give but they're afraid to let it in She's got a love to give and he's got a love to give
So let 'em in, yeah
In a world with no together
She can't see him in her picture
She wants love, so let him in
To his world with no together
He can't see her in his picture
He wants love but his heart won't let him let her in
He's walking behind, she's walking behind
