

Found What I've Been Looking For

Tom Grennan

Always fine lines between us
They say not days don't mean much
Coz an anchor in the sand, what we did
But my ships have sailed and I'm here to tell that
I don't mean like the others
And I...I keep searching and I can't seem to find what I'm wanting
It's changing all the time and if you noticed a different side of mine
Then I've found what I've been looking for
Found what I've been looking for
Found what I've been looking for
Found what I've been looking for
Should I wait, should I stay to see it
Arm fold cause I'm told, I need it
I'm not fighting to take off, step away
But my ships have sailed and I'm here to tell that
I don't mean like the others
And I...I keep searching and I can't seem to find what I'm wanting
It's changing all the time and if you noticed a different side of mine
Then I've found what I've been looking for
Found what I've been looking for
Found what I've been looking for
Found what I've been looking for I've been running round, running round, running round
Now I'm done, done enough, done enough, done enough
Scared the magic might fade away
I keep searching and I can't seem to find what I'm wanting
It's changing all the time and if you noticed a different side of mine
Then I've found what I've been looking for
Found what I've been looking for
I keep searching and I can't seem to find what I'm wanting
It's changing all the time and if you noticed a different side of mine
Then I've found what I've been looking for
Found what I've been looking for
Found what i've been looking for
Found what I've been looking for
Found what i've been looking for
Found what I've been looking for
