Soilwork

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Well, it's one for the money, two for the show
It makes no difference where I'll go
Push injections in my skin to make my mission beginNeedles to fly, needle feast, needles to die, needle feast
Gotta get inside, gotta get inside, needles to die needles to flyBurning up my hunger, lay it all to rest
Waking up my hostile pain, put it to the test
When all is said and done I tell you I'm the oneThe one to reign supreme I'm like a brick wall
I'm a solid player and I'm standing tall
Who can make me fall on this very road?Needles to fly, needle feast, needles to die, needle feast
Gotta get inside, gotta get inside, needles to die needles to fly
Fly! Fly! Fly!This life I cannot face it, with the writings on the wall
This time it's hard to face it
As I'm screaming what am I doing here?I bite the days like a suction pump
Another breath another punch
It makes me catch my breathNeedles to fly, needle feast, needles to die, needle feast
Gotta get inside, gotta get inside, needles to die needles to fly
Fly! Fly! Fly!This life I cannot face it, with the writings on the wall
This time it's hard to face it
As I'm screaming what am I doing here?Before you steal my breath away I like to know if I was led astray
Neurosis comes to me at night it holds the truth 'cause I'm
One for the money, two for the show straight to hell is where I go
One for the money, two for the show straight to hell is where I go
One for the money, two for the show straight to hell is where I go
Go! Go! Go!This life I cannot face it, with the writings on the wall
This time it's hard to face it
As I'm screaming what am I doing here?This life I cannot face it, with the writings on the wall
This time it's hard to face it
As I'm screaming what am I doing here?
