

Usher Me Down

Jennifer Knapp

Alone, alone is where I'll be
Waiting, waiting so patiently
Escape this little war raging
One still small voice, come rescue me
Why wait, why wait
Why wait for You to usher me down
Many oh, many oh, Lord, my God
The wonders that I have found
When You usher me down
Sacrifice and offering
You do not desire of me
I say here I am You come
As if I ever had to call
Why wait, why wait
Why wait for You to usher me down
Many oh, many oh, Lord, my God
The wonders that I have found
When You usher me down
Who could replace You? None I know of
The throne is Yours alone
Left to stand unshaken
Can't be taken back, can't be taken back
Why wait, why wait
Why wait for You to usher me down
Many oh, many oh, Lord, my God
The wonders that I have found
When You usher me down
