

As I Lay Me Down

Sophie B. Hawkins

It felt like spring time on this February morning
In a courtyard birds were singing your praise
I'm still recalling things you said to make me feel alright
I carried them with me today Now as I lay me down to sleep
This I pray, that you will hold me dear
Though I'm far away
I'll whisper your name into the sky
And I will wake up happy I wonder why I feel so high
Though I am not above the sorrow
Heavy hearted
Till you call my name And it sounds like church bells
Or the whistle of a train
On a summer evening
I'll run to meet you
Barefoot barely breathing As I lay me down to sleep
This I pray, that you will hold me dear
Though I'm far away
I'll whisper your name into the sky
And I will wake up happy Oh darlin' as I lay me down to sleep
This I pray, that you will hold me dear
Though I'm far away
I'll whisper your name into the sky
And I will wake up happy It's not too near for me
Like a flower I need the rain
Though its not clear to me
Every season has its change
And I will see you
When the sun comes out again As I lay me down to sleep
This I pray, that you will hold me dear
Though I'm far away
I'll whisper your name into the sky
And I will wake up happy Oh darlin' as I lay me down to sleep
This I pray, that you will hold me dear
Though I'm far away
I'll whisper your name into the sky
And I will wake up happy I wonder why
The sun comes out again
When the sun comes out again
When the sun comes out again

When the sun comes out again Oh the sun comes out again
When the sun comes out again
The sun comes out, comes out, comes out
I will wake up happy, this I pray now And every morning again
And every morning again
And every
