Gorgeous

Girl Next Door

(k. green)I hate to break it to you, we had nothing in common
We were so far apart
You liked top 40 radio and I had my joni mitchell
We were helpless from the start
You wanted something more than I could ever give You wanted to feel my kiss from the heart
But I only loved you because you're gorgeousLong, long sleepless nights so unsatisfied
Never wanted a car or your money or a diamond ring
I never asked for anything from you
But I'd take honesty over jealousy any day
Something that you could never give to me
Anyway, I only loved you because you're gorgeous
I only cared because you're gorgeousLast night you came to me in a dream
I thought my therapy had rid you from my memory
I was wrong
Everyone says, "i love you"
Everyone says, "i need you"
Everyone says, "oh, darling marry me" so casually it seems
But I only loved you because you're gorgeous
Said, I only stayed because you're gorgeousEveryone says, "i love you"
Everyone says, "i love you"
Everyone says, "i love you" so casually it seems
But I only loved you because you're gorgeous
Said, I only smiled because you're gorgeous
Mmm...you're gorgeousBilly lincoln - guitars, bass
Kat green - vocals, keys, sampling

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/