Armageddon Bound

Bolt Thrower

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

On the edge
Spirit begins to break
Chances unsure
Not much more you can takeWeakness grows
Nerves start to crack
Far from safe
There is no turning backA fine line
Between victory and defeat
At the midpoint
Uncertainty completeConfusion prevails
Unsure which way to move
Holding no hope
There is nothing more, nothing more to proveTrying to discover what is right
And what is wrong
Judged by false criteria
Ideals strongMisfortune predictable
Lessons learnt before
Decisions now justified
Perpetuate this warThis battlefield wide open
No territory gained
Within this wasteland
Humanity constrainedHere in no mans land
No mercy can be found
Delirious perspective
Armageddon bound
